Thomas Hobbes
On Reason and Passions, Law and Politics
UC Berkeley Conference, November 7-8, 2014, 223 Moses Hall

Friday, November 7

9am Welcome
9:15 Professor Monicka Patterson-Tutschka: Hobbes and Natural Law in Context
Respondent: Professor Ethan Shagan

10:45 Professor Susanne Sreedhar: Theft, Murder, Adultery: Hobbes, the Lacedaemonians and Puzzles about Natural Law
Respondent: Professor Jonathan Sheehan

1:15 Professor Arash Abizadeh: Hobbes on Mind: A Strongly Cognitive Account of Deliberation and Reasoning
Respondent: Professor Martine Pécharman

2:30 Professor Stewart Duncan: Hobbes on the Signification of Moral Language
Respondent: Professor Kinch Hoekstra

4pm Professor Martine Pécharman Deliberation, Reasoning and 'The Will': How Does Hobbes's Theory of the Mind Contribute to his Political Theory?
Respondent: Nicholas Gooding

Saturday, November 8

9am Welcome
9:15 Professor David Dyzenhaus: The Public Conscience of the Law from Hobbes to Hart
Respondent: Professor Chris Kutz

10:45 Rosemarie Wagner: What are the Rules of Law for Hobbes?
Respondent: Professor David Dyzenhaus

1:15 Professor Dennis Klimchuk: How Much Weight Does Equity Bear for Hobbes?
Respondent: Rosemarie Wagner

2:45 Nicholas Gooding: Hobbes and Fundamental Law
Respondent: Professor Arash Abizadeh

Conference is open to all. For copies of papers circulated in advance, or any other questions, please email Nicholas Gooding at ngooding@berkeley.edu.

Sponsored by the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation and Center for British Studies, University of California, Berkeley.